
Ex-Officio Members of Committees, Councils

It is the policy of Aversboro Road Baptist Church that ex-officio members of all organizations, departments, committees and councils shall be extended the same rights as elected or appointed members. In accordance with Roberts Rules of Order, and in the absence of any church by-laws prohibition, an ex-officio member is a full fledged member with all accompanying rights including voting privileges. Ex-officio members shall be extended an invitation to attend all meetings but ex-officio members shall not be obligated to attend or be counted in determining if a quorum is present.
